SUNCOAST WOODCRAFTERS GUILD GENERAL MEETING June 17, 2014 6:00 PM

June 17th, 2014 Suncoast Woodcrafters Guild general meeting was the annual 2x4 Challenge. This year the event was combined with a wine and cheese party which was held at Coopers Green Regional Park in Halfmoon Bay. Spouses and guests were invited to this year's event. 54 people were in attendance. This included three judges- Marv Wallace and Bob Knight (owner) of Rent-it! Canada. Dan MacAuley (General Manager) from Sunshine Coast Home Building Centre.

There was no formal meeting. Dave Stamper welcomed every one. People sampled the great assortments of cheese, crackers, veggies, fruits, desserts and beverages of their choice.

A special thank you was extended to all the ladies and fellows that came early to do the food preparations, setups and stayed late to clean-up.

The event drew 15 entries from 14 entrants. 3 of the entries were in the first time category.

Don Kernan, Pat Reilly and Rick Crook brought their wooden boats as a display event. They allowed those interested to take the wooden boats out for a row.
